

Drawing Prompts for Kids

BASED ON WATER AND SPIRIT: DEVOTIONS FOR LENT 2023

These prompts are meant to keep children engaged in your family's Lenten devotional practices. Some days don't have a prompt at all because the reading is less concrete. We hope these prompts will help your children connect with the gospel this Lent!

February 22: Draw what you think the beginning of the world looked like.

February 24: Draw what you think God looks like.

February 25: Draw a picture of a baby sheep.

February 26: Draw a picture of a dove or other kind of bird.

February 28: Write your name in big letters and then decorate the rest of the piece of paper to represent who you are.

March 1-2: Draw a picture of a wedding or other big party or gathering.

March 3: Draw a picture of a time you or someone else made a big mess.

March 4: Draw a picture of something getting destroyed.

March 5-6: Draw a picture of two people meeting at night.

March 8: Draw a picture of something being blown by the wind.

March 9: Draw a picture of a snake.

March 12: Draw a picture of two people sharing something to eat or drink.

March 13: Draw a picture of where you get your water.

March 17: Draw a picture of someone giving food to people who are hungry.

March 18: Draw a picture of your favorite food.

March 19: Draw a picture of a time you were hurt or sick and someone helped you feel better.

March 20: Draw a picture of someone who makes rules.

March 21: Draw a picture of your parents.

March 22: Draw a picture of a group of people picking on or bullying someone else.

March 24-25: Draw a picture of a flock of sheep and a shepherd.

March 26: Draw a picture of someone who is sick.

March 27: Draw a picture of a time you were upset with God.

March 28: Draw a picture of a time you had faith in God.

March 29: Draw a picture of a time you felt sad.

March 31: Draw a picture of something really good happening.

April 1: Draw a picture of something fancy or expensive.

April 2: Draw a picture of someone being welcomed into a new place.

April 3: Draw a picture of a crowd.

April 4: Draw a picture of a plant that is growing.

April 5: Draw a picture of someone doing something nice for someone else.

April 6: Draw a picture of people who love each other.

April 7: Draw a picture of something sad happening.

April 8: Draw a picture of a time you got good news.

